

Privacy Policy

Last updated: December 14, 2025

Panther respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect your information when you interact with us, attend our events, or use our services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect personal information including contact details, ticketing and registration information, payment-related information processed via third-party providers, event preferences, attendance history, marketing preferences, and basic technical data when using our website.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your data to manage events, communicate updates, process payments, improve our services, send marketing communications where permitted, and comply with legal obligations.

3. Legal Basis for Processing

We process personal data based on consent, performance of a contract, legal obligations, and legitimate business interests.

4. Sharing Your Information

We may share your data with trusted third-party service providers, event partners or venues, and legal authorities where required. We do not sell your personal data.

5. Data Storage and Security

We take appropriate measures to protect your data and retain it only as long as necessary for the purposes outlined in this policy.

6. Your Rights

You may have the right to access, correct, delete, restrict, or object to the processing of your personal data, and to withdraw marketing consent at any time.

7. Cookies and Tracking

Our website may use cookies to improve functionality and analyse usage. You can control cookies through your browser settings.

8. Third-Party Links

We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites linked from our platforms.

9. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Updates will be posted where appropriate.
